

Menopause and the workplace training

REFRESHING LAW

Down to Earth

Passionate about workplace training

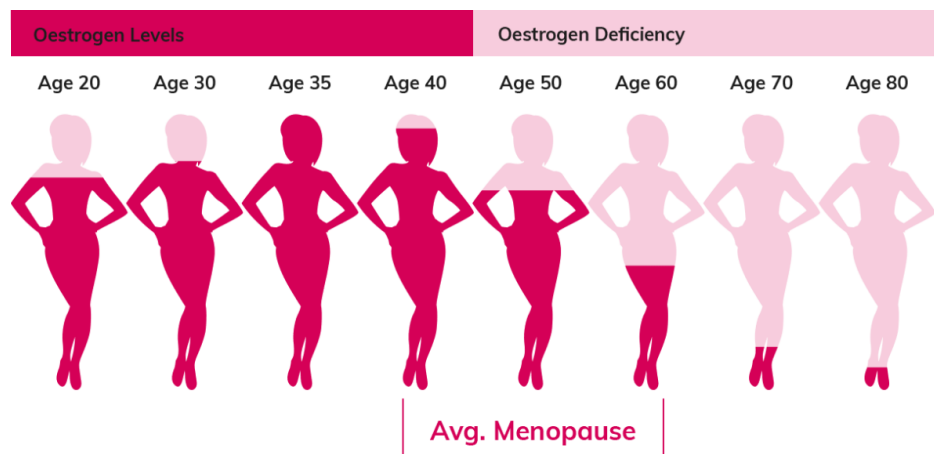

Tuesday 25th June 2019

9:30am to 11:30am

£199 + VAT

10% discount for charities and for multiple delegates

Cardiff Business Technology Centre

The Hot Topic of 2019! Content of the session:

- What is the menopause?
- Why is it an important issue in the workplace? The benefits of being a menopause friendly employer.
- What is the legal position? The case law and all the strands of employment law that can come into play.
- What risks does an employer run if they ignore this issue?
- Drafting a policy – what ingredients should be included?
- Case studies

Delivered by Anna Denton-Jones, a solicitor specialising in dealing with workplace law who is passionate about training those in HR and Line Managers. This course will be focussed on practical things you can take away to improve your workplace practice when dealing with issues connected to the menopause.

To book:

Please email admin@refreshinglawltd.co.uk to secure your place, indicating the name of the person(s) attending.

All bookings will be invoiced in May or June 2019. Anyone cancelling within 1 week of the event may send along a substitute delegate but will still be charged in full. Anyone cancelling before that will be charged a £25 + VAT admin fee.